Resource day prepares students with disabilities for adulthood

WHAT: Resource Day — Children's Rehabilitation Service ( CRS ) is sponsoring a day to provide information for students with disabilities who are preparing for life after high school. Speakers will provide information about living independently, obtaining Medicaid, and finding resources for people with disabilities. Participants will also learn how and when to apply for certain services. Resource Day is not only for students with disabilities, but also for the nurses, social workers, and caregivers who work with them.

WHERE: Lions Hall, located at the Wiregrass Rehabilitation Center
795 Ross Clark Circle, Dothan

WHEN: Monday, Aug. 24
9 a.m. – 3:30 p.m., registration begins at 8:30 a.m.

WHO:

- Area students with disabilities and their families
- Professionals (nurses, social workers, and more)
- CRS , a division of the Alabama Department of Rehabilitation Services ( ADRS )
- CRS Dothan Parent Advisory Committee
- Mike Martin, Department of Mental Health
- Meg May, Houston County Health Department
- Michelle Stephenson, State of Alabama Independent Living Service

WHY: CRS is a division of ADRS and is dedicated to providing educational, medical and rehabilitation services as well as coordination and support services for children with special health care needs through projects such as the Resource Day. ADRS is the state agency whose mission is to enable Alabama's children and adults with disabilities to achieve their maximum potential.
